

C.I.G. Administrative Instructions

RESTRICTED

1 of 4

RESTRICTED

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
Washington, D. C.

ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTION

5 January 1950

STATINTL

SUBJECT: CIA Administration and Operations.

1. In connection with the application of the provisions of Public Law 110, the administration and operations of the Central Intelligence Agency will be based on sound, economical and completely justifiable practices.

2. CIA will be guided to the fullest extent by the provisions of law and regulations applicable to all government agencies. This is, in fact, the intent of the Congress even though not specifically so stated, and only in this manner can we properly accept and discharge the unique and very great responsibility and trust placed in the Agency by the Congress and the President.

R. H. HILLENKOETTER
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central Intelligence

STATINTL

DISTRIBUTION: A.

RESTRICTED

RESTRICTED

File

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
Washington, D. C.

ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTION

5 January 1950

STATINTL

SUBJECT: CIA Administration and Operations.

1. In connection with the application of the provisions of Public Law 110, the administration and operations of the Central Intelligence Agency will be based on sound, economical and completely justifiable practices.

2. CIA will be guided to the fullest extent by the provisions of law and regulations applicable to all government agencies. This is, in fact, the intent of the Congress even though not specifically so stated, and only in this manner can we properly accept and discharge the unique and very great responsibility and trust placed in the Agency by the Congress and the President.

STATINTL

[Redacted]
R. H. HILLENKOTTER
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central Intelligence

DISTRIBUTION: A.

RESTRICTED

RESTRICTED

Draft 1/3/50

STATINTL

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
Washington, D. C.

ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTION

1/6/50

STATINTL

SUBJECT: CIA Administration and Operations.

- In connection with the application of the provisions of P.L. 116*
1. The administration and operations of the Central Intelligence

Agency will be based on sound, economical and completely justifiable practices.

2. CIA will be guided to the fullest extent by the provisions of law and regulations applicable to all government agencies. This is, in fact, the intent of the Congress even though not specifically so stated, and only in this manner can we properly accept and discharge the unique and very great responsibility and trust placed in the Agency by the Congress and the President.

R. H. HILLENKOETTER
Rear Admiral, USN
Director of Central Intelligence

DISTRIBUTION: A.

RESTRICTED